

Informed Consent for Mental Health Services

1. Mental Health Services

Restoring Destiny Mental Health Services recognizes that it may not be easy to seek help from a mental health professional; we hope that with our help you will be better able to understand your situation and feelings and will be able to move toward resolving your difficulties. The therapist will strive to help you grow towards greater health and wholeness by providing counseling services. Our therapists work within the context of each individual's beliefs, and no attempt is made to impose a personal theology.

2. Therapist

The therapist is a licensed professional engaged in providing mental health care services to clients directly as an employee of RESTORING DESTINY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES. The therapist has discussed with me the various aspects of psychotherapy. This includes a discussion of the evaluation and diagnostic formulation, as well as the method of treatment. The nature of the treatment has been described, including the extent, its possible side effects, and possible alternative forms of treatment. You may withdraw from treatment at any time, but please discuss this with your therapist.

3. Appointments and Cancellations

Appointments are made by contacting at 443-282-8146, we will meet weekly, bi-weekly or monthly, according to the Client's requirements.

All appointments must be cancelled by telephone or email within 24 hours before the scheduled appointment. There is a 15 minute grace period for all appointments. Please communicate with us regarding delay or cancellation. We are available by text at 443-282-8146 always.

Third-party payments will not usually cover or reimburse for missed appointments.

Clients who repeatedly miss appointments may be discharged from services. Your therapist reserves the right to cancel your appointment if you show up sick or with minor children that might interfere with the counseling session.

4. Number and Length of Sessions

The number of sessions needed depends on many factors and will be discussed by the therapist. The length of therapy sessions range depending on several factors, and the therapist will discuss this with you.

However, patients must attend at least 5 therapy sessions before any DSS or SSI or any medical forms of any type can be completed on patient's behalf. Once a patient/client attends 5 therapy sessions, forms can be completed. However, we ask for a 3 week turnaround for completing forms.

5. Relationship

Your relationship with the therapist is a professional and therapeutic relationship. In order to preserve this relationship, it is imperative that the therapist not have any other type of relationship with you. Personal and/or business relationships undermine the effectiveness of the therapeutic relationship. The therapist cares about helping you but is not in a position to be your friend or to have a social and personal relationship with you. Gifts, bartering, and trading services are not appropriate and should not be shared between you and the therapist.

6. Goals, Purposes, and Techniques of Therapy

There may be multiple interventions to effectively treat the problems you are experiencing. It is important for you to discuss any questions you may have regarding the treatment recommended by the therapist and to have input into setting goals of your therapy. As therapy progresses, these may change.

7. Confidentiality

Discussions between a therapist and a client are confidential. No information will be released without the client's written consent unless mandated by law. Possible exceptions to confidentiality include but are not limited to the following situations: child abuse; abuse of the elderly or disabled; abuse of patients in mental health facilities; sexual exploitation; AIDS/HIV infection and possible transmission; criminal prosecutions; child custody cases, suits in which the mental health of a party is in issue; situations where the therapist has a duty to disclose, or where, in the therapist's judgment, it is necessary to warn, notify, or disclose; fee disputes between therapist and the client; a negligence suit brought by the client against the therapist; or the filing of a complaint with a licensing board or other state or federal regulatory authority.

If you have any questions regarding confidentiality, you should bring them to the attention of the therapist when you and the therapist discuss this matter further. By signing the Receipt form for the Informed Consent and Privacy Practices, you are giving your consent to the therapist to share confidential information with all persons mandated by law and the managed care company and/or insurance carrier responsible for providing your mental health care services and payment for those services. You are also releasing and holding harmless the therapist from any departure from your right of confidentiality that may result.

8. Duty to Warn

In the event that the therapist reasonably believes that the client is a danger, physically or emotionally, to themselves or another person, consent is given for the therapist to warn the person in danger and to contact any person in a position to prevent harm to themselves or another person, including law enforcement and medical personnel. This authorization shall expire upon the termination of therapy.

By signing Informed Consent and Privacy Practices form, you acknowledge that you have the right to revoke this authorization in writing at any time to the extent the therapist has not taken action in reliance on this observation. You further acknowledge that even if you revoke this authorization, the use and disclosure of your protected health information could possibly still be permitted by law as indicated in the Notice of Privacy Practices section of this form. You acknowledge that you have been advised by the therapist of the potential of the re-disclosure of your protected health information by the authorized recipients, and that it will no longer be protected by the federal Privacy Rule. You further acknowledge that the treatment provided to you by the therapist was conditioned on you providing this authorization.

9. Risks of Therapy

Therapy is the Greek word for change. Clients often learn things about themselves that they don't like. Often growth cannot occur until past issues are experienced and confronted, often causing distressing feelings such as sadness and anxiety. The success of therapy depends upon the quality of the efforts of both the therapist and client, along with the reality that clients are responsible for the lifestyle choices/changes that may result from therapy. Specifically, one risk of marital therapy is the possibility of exercising the divorce option.

10. Payment for Services

The charge for your one-hour session (_____ minutes with therapist) is $_____.00. Shorter sessions will be a percentage of the full fee. RESTORING DESTINY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES will look to you for full payment of your account, and you will be responsible for payment of all charges. If you have insurance, different copayments are required by various group coverage plans. Your copayment is based on the Mental Health Policy selected by your employer or purchased by you. In addition, the copayment may be different for the first visit than for subsequent visits. You are responsible for and shall pay your copay portion of the therapist's charges for the services at the time services are provided. You are responsible for notifying RESTORING DESTINY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES immediately of any changes to your insurance. If you fail to notify RESTORING DESTINY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES of any changes to insurance, you may be billed for services that are not covered.

11. Court

Although it is the goal of the therapist to protect the confidentiality of your records, there may be times when disclosure of your records or testimony will be compelled by law. In the event disclosure of your records or the therapist's testimony are requested by you or required by law, you will be responsible for and shall pay the costs involved in producing the records.

Such payments are to be made at the time prior to the time the services are rendered by the therapist. The therapist may require a deposit for anticipated court appearances and preparation.

By signing the Informed Consent and Privacy Practices Receipt, you give your consent to another licensed mental health professional at Restoring Destiny Mental Health Services to take possession of your files and records and provide you with copies upon request, or to deliver them to a therapist of your choice.

14. Consent to Treatment

By signing the Informed Consent and Privacy Practices Receipt, you voluntarily agree to receive mental health assessment, care, treatment, or services and authorize the therapist to provide such care, treatment, or services as are considered necessary and advisable. Signing indicates that you understand and agree that you will participate in the planning of your care, treatment, or services, and that you may stop such care, treatment, or services at any time.
